LAST APPEAL!

Before another issue of our paper can reach many of our subscribers, the day of election will have passed, and the political destiny of the State, for another gubernatorial term, fixed. In view of this fact we make one more appeal to our friends to come up to the work like men conscious of the responsibility resting upon them, and with an unflinching determination to do their duty and their whole duty. The acknowledged strength of the Democracy may beget a lukewarmness, a feeling of security against the possibility of defeat; a carelessness that may produce results disastrous in the extreme. Against this we would warn Democrats; we have the power to crush out the mongrel concern arrayed in opposition; we have the strength to sweep to oblivion the combined factions of Know-Nothing-Whiggery and McRae-distributionism. Our numbers are sufficient to overcome the entire force now fighting under the leadership of Duncan McRae, and if we fail to do it, the fault will be our own. We fight for principles that should strengthen our arms and nerve us for the struggle in which we are about to engage. We have as our leader one of our own countrymen, one who has been before great cardinal doctrines for which we have before battled, and which have been triumphantly sustained, not only by the people of North Carolina, but by the people of the whole Union. Under their operations, the country has grown, expanded, prospered, until it now stands the pride and admiration of our people, and the wonder and envy of the world at large. For these cherished doctrines the Democracy of the old North State are again called upon to record their approval, and that in opposition to a factious combination having nothing in common save a desperate and insatiable desire to grasp the spoils of office, and to strike down the Democratic party, that they may feed from the public crib. Distribution is the weapon with which they seek to accomplish this grand result; a disorganizing democrat is the man they have selected to carry on this crusade; with these, Know-Nothingism, forgetting its past history, its detestation of foreigners, its hatred of Catholics, the dangers which threatened the country from Pope and priest, goes before the enlightened freemen of North Carolina, and begs to be honored by their votes. Shall it be done? Shall a party with nothing but an exploded humbug to entitle them to popular favor, receive the suffrages of sensible and reasoning men? Shall a party, changing its name with the year, and that to delude and deceive, receive support from a people whose history is one of devotion, unflinching devotion, to principle, and who have sternly refused to be led off by the gull traps and baits which modern Americanism has so skillfully prepared for them? We answer, no! It can never be whilst the Democracy are awake; American-Whig-McRaeism can not triumph when the Democratic party is up and doing. Aroused it is invincible, and such it will be on the first Thursday in August. Stir yourselves, brother Democrats, and let us give Know-Nothingism another Waterloo defeat. Go to the polls, and urge your friends to do likewise. Roll it up for the gallant ELLIS in a way that will astonish even the most sanguine.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

See the advertisement for the Curlew in another place. Her attentive and obliging Captain seems determined to do all in his power to add to the enjoyment of our people during this dull season, and we hope a proper appreciation will be shown for his efforts. Let all go, and give the Curlew a choice flight.

We had in type a review of some of the positions taken by Mr. Hinton in his discussion with Mr. Albertson, but the severe illness of Mr. Hinton and a sad affliction which has befallen him, has induced us to postpone it for the next issue.

Remember! that every person who is entitled to vote for a Commoner, is also entitled to vote in the Senate box.

SENATORIAL CANVASS.

J. W. Albertson, Esq., the Democratic candidate for the Senate, has been addressing the people of the two counties, Pasquotank and Perquimans, upon the various subjects agitating the public mind at this time.

His competitor, Mr. Pool, has been prevented by indisposition from canvassing with him, though he attempted it once, but found his strength inadequate to the task. His place has been supplied by Mr. J. W. Hinton, and Mr. Jos. S. Cannon will meet him in Hertford on Saturday. We regret that Mr. Pool's health would not permit him to speak with Mr. Albertson, for under the present arrangement neither of the gentlemen answering Mr. Albertson, hold Mr. Pool responsible for their opinions and the peculiar sentiments entertained by Mr. Pool go undiscussed before the people. Besides, with every new disputant Mr. Albertson is likely to have a new issue sprung upon him, whilst his previous antagonist escapes from some unpleasant dilemma which he has gotten himself into. We do not charge that this is an intentional, but it is certainly an advantage that we are surprised to see the opposition avail themselves of. The discussions, however, have been going on and Mr. Hinton has represented Mr. Pool on several occasions. We have not been permitted to hear the gentlemen, but if we were to give credit to all we hear from our opponents, we should think there was hardly enough of Mr. Albertson left to make an ordinary grease spot. Indeed, say they, your man has been utterly demoralized. This is an old cry, one that we are used to. It is a part of the game, and is entirely too common to effect any. We know that Mr. Albertson is a sound, logical thinker, a clear and able debater, and fully competent to meet his adversaries upon any point which they may start.

There is a peculiar feeling against Mr. Albertson among the Know-Nothings: he was once one of their number, but too patriotic to allow his party proclivities to sway his better judgment, he could not sanction the yielding and submissive policy adopted by the Southern wing of his party to Northern demands; he could not give his assent to see the only expression bearing upon Southern rights, contained in the Philadelphia platform, stricken out to gratify the unjust pretensions of Northern free-soilism; he would not say amen to the affiliation of Black Republicans and Know-Nothings in Congress, by which the notorious Union sliding Banks was elected to the Speakership, and he immediately joined himself to the only party having a national organization. For this, he has been abused, denounced, and vilified, and now that he is a candidate the full strength of Know-Nothing opposition is brought to bear against him. We know that Mr. Albertson only gave up his party affinities when he could no longer resist the calls of duty; it was only when he became satisfied that the soundness of his Northern allies was a sham, their conservatism a myth, that he tore himself from the embraces of his old party friends, and connected himself with the National Democracy. For this he has since forsaken the fortunes of Sam, and is now fighting under the banner of a renegade, office hunting, disorganizing Democrat. What a commentary upon Know Nothingism!

In taking a position with the great Democratic party, Mr. Albertson has placed himself side by side with many of the first men with whom he had been acting before. The flower of the old Whig party are now aiding the national Democracy in their war upon sectionalism; many of those who had been led to believe that the "American" party was organized upon a conservative basis, though occupying enviable positions, from their talents and commanding influence, have been driven to labor in our ranks from an irresistible conviction that the South must look for her safeguard and protection to the only party having a truly national organization. Mr. Albertson need not look beyond the limits of his own State for evidence of the propriety of his course—if he needed other than his own conscience. Such evidence is afforded him at home. Men who at one time gave tone, and we might say character, to the opposition in North Carolina; men—aye many of them—who governed, directed and controlled the movements of the party with which they acted, are at this time lending the weight of their abilities to the Democracy, and are found in the thickest of the fight against a faction that is seeking to break down an administration which has stood firmly and unshaken by Southern rights. Mr. Albertson may therefore laugh at the puny effort to cast odium upon his course. He may pass by without a word the attempt to impugn his motives, and rest satisfied that he stands unscathed amidst the volley of vituperation and abuse that has been leveled at him. J. W. ALBERTSON cannot be injured by a thousand such arms as those raised against him.

The Revised Code of this State says that voters shall give their ballots to the person conducting the election "rolled up," or folded; but we believe it is generally the custom with the officers here to look at the tickets of each and every person voting. We see nothing wrong in this, but it does not please some people; and, as we have not the Virginia system of voting in North Carolina, and as there are some men who do not want everybody to know for whom they vote, we think it but right that the law in this respect should be sustained. "Every one to his notion," &c.

Dedication.

The new building in this county just erected for the worship of God, entitled the Berea Baptist Church, is to be dedicated on the first Lord's day in August next. Elder Trotman, of the Chowan Association, to preach the dedication sermon. A protracted meeting is expected to commence at that time, and brethren in the ministry and brethren generally are invited to attend.

GODLEY'S LADY'S BOOK, and the LADIES' HOME MAGAZINE, for August, have both been received, but too late for notice to-day; we shall notice them in our next.

Our thanks are due Hon. T. L. Clingman and Hon. David S. Reid for valuable public documents.

RENEGADES.

Know-Nothingism delights to vent its spite upon the true and conscientious men who, preferring country to party, have left their ranks and are now co-operating with the national Democracy.

We might be disposed to regard with some degree of pity the narrow and contracted soul that can see nothing for a change of course but sordid motives and corrupt intentions, and are ever imputing dishonesty and rascality to men who have been forced by stern convictions of duty to separate themselves from old party associations, provided the change is made by one who can say "I am pure." But to hear men prating of renegades, and forever croaking about traitors, who are doubly dyed in the sin they lay to the account of others, can only excite a smile of derision; it is supremely ridiculous.

The charge comes with a bad grace from those who were once disciples of the immaculate Samuel. When the Whig party was in the zenith of its glory, and stood a tower of strength, defying the assaults of its enemies, these same consistent individuals were loudest in shouting praises to its incorruptible purity. When adversity had overtaken it, and its banner trailed in the dust, they were the first to traitorously desert it and to declare to the world that it was but a mass of festering corruption. Their new idol was equally the subject of their adoration and homage; Samuel was for awhile supreme. His sceptre was to rule the earth. Glorious Samuel! what blessings—in the way of spoils—was he to bestow upon the faithful! The idea of the spoils—filled his followers with joy, and long and loud did they shout in his behalf. Unfortunately, the reign of this deliverer of the world was but short; his bogus character was soon discovered; his ridiculous pretensions exposed, and the miserable fiction was soon shorn of its power. Like his worthy predecessor, he was soon deserted, and his followers found another better suited to their worship. The goal of their loftiest ambition—office—was, however, as far distant as ever, and they have sought a leader in the camp of the enemy. One they found, and to him they now bend the knee and swear allegiance.

And these are the men that croak about renegades; these the individuals that stigmatize high and honorable men, who have given an evidence of their honesty and patriotism by forsaking party that they might better serve their country, as traitors, and unworthy of confidence. Did presumption ever go farther?

Rip-Slap has been to the West—Rain—Corn crops—Judge Ellis' prospects—Halifax County candidates—the canvass in Northampton—Warm weather.

[Correspondence of the Democratic Pioneer.]

WELDON, N. C., July 22d, 1858.

Again I have to plead absence from home as an excuse for not having written yesterday, which was my regular day. I have been to Salisbury, Greensboro, &c., and upon my return found my hands so entirely full of business that I was kept constantly employed, and am not up even now.

We have had an abundance of rain all through this region, and it is hindering farmers from getting out their wheat, tho' it makes the corn grow like magic, and from all appearances I opine there will be a most extraordinary crop made this year, and I hardly know what will be done with it all, though as whiskey hasn't gone out of fashion yet, nor lost much of its popularity, it will find a market somewhere. Cheering accounts of the crops come up from all directions.

During my recent trip westward I learned that Judge Ellis was making great headway in the West, and with my knowledge of the east I candidly believe his majority will hardly fall short of 15,000, even if it does not exceed that amount, and I heard of a supporter of Mr. McRae being backed out here this week on twenty thousand majority. He having proposed the bet himself.

On Saturday next our county candidates address the people at this place. There is no opposition except that Mr. Jno. R. Branch is running as an Independent Democrat. He is against distribution and in favor of Judge Ellis, and only claims to be the best Democrat out.

In Northampton matters are going ahead swimmingly, except that the Democratic ticket has no opposition, and therefore will not be able to test its full strength. So far as I can see "the work goes bravely on" everywhere, and there is "a better day coming."

It being now quite late and the weather very warm, you must receive this as an apology for a longer letter till next week.

RIP-SLAP.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The Democrats of Washington, as will be seen by the proceedings of a meeting held on the 16th of July, have nominated that sterling Democrat, Joseph S. Norman, Esq., as their candidate for the House of Commons.

We receive the most cheering intelligence from this county—the election of Mr. Norman is anticipated by his friends, while our candidate for Governor will no doubt carry the county by a handsome majority. Let ELLIS, GUTTHER and NORMAN, be your watch-words, brother Democrats, and we may confidently rely upon a good report from "glorious little Washington" on the day of the election.

GOOD NEWS FROM ALL QUARTERS.

We continue to receive cheering intelligence from all quarters of the State in relation to the contest for Governor. Judge Ellis has made the most favorable impression in the mountain counties, and his vote in that part of the State will be large. Let the Democracy of the Eastern and Central Counties emulate the enthusiasm of their Western brethren.

Turn out, brother Democrats, in full force, and vote for your County tickets and for JOHN W. ELLIS.

Correspondence of the Standard.

MESSRS. ELLIS AND MCRAE AT ASHVILLE—MR. MCRAE'S CHANGE OF POSITION CONFIRMED!

We ask the attention of the people of all parties to the following account of the discussion at Asheville between Messrs. Ellis and McRae. Our correspondents are gentlemen of high character, and what they have written may be implicitly relied upon.

ASHVILLE, July 16, 1858.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The gubernatorial candidates spoke here to-day. Most of the points made by them are already familiar to the people of the State. On one subject, of surpassing interest to every friend of the present State system of internal improvements, I desire to describe, with careful accuracy, the position occupied by the candidates here in Buncombe, that the public throughout North Carolina may be able to decide the question as to the consistency, and consequently the sincerity of each.

Judge Ellis took his usual ground and charged his competitor vehemently with having changed his position. Mr. McRae pronounced himself in favor of all appropriations which had heretofore been made for the present system of internal improvements by State aid; and that, though not in the Legislature at the time, he declared, and had habitually declared himself in favor of them, and was ready to shoulder all the responsibility of these measures; and that he was as good a Railroad man as his opponent. He was not only for taking off the restriction of the section feature from the Western Extension, so as to enable that work to progress on the whole line at once, but—and this he had declared at Clinton, and in every Eastern County where he had spoken afterwards—"when the present appropriations were exhausted, he would go as far as any man for further appropriations." Judge Ellis read to him this last declaration, (which he had written down as the words were spoken,) and said, "will you put that in writing and sign it?" He replied, "I will not sign any thing written by my opponent." On Judge Ellis repeating the question several times, he said he was ready to put in writing a statement witnessed by six respectable citizens.

N. W. Woodfin, Esq., (from the audience,) then said he wished to ask both gentlemen a question—"Supposing the restrictions being removed, we go to work and finish the Road from the Tennessee line to the Blue Ridge within four years; if the money is then exhausted, will you then recommend an appropriation to complete it?" Judge Ellis at once replied that he had, throughout the canvass, declared that he would; and he now repeated the declaration. On the question being directed to Mr. McRae, he walked across the stand and back, and after hesitating, manifestly confused, said, "he would not recommend any State aid during the next two years; and that no earthly power could induce him to be a candidate for a second term."

Judge Ellis said, "the fair thing is the fair thing; I want this matter thoroughly understood." Mr. Woodfin repeated his question.—Judge Ellis again replied "he would." Mr. McRae again said, "he would recommend no further State aid during the first two years; he expected to be out of office before the term of four years alluded to by Mr. Woodfin; but he would, in the contingency mentioned, give such appropriations his unofficial advocacy, and go as far as the farthest for the completion of the work by State aid."

I merely give these points, that the people outside this District may see which of the candidates is consistent; and I submit them without further comment.

I may add that while Mr. McRae was assailing Gov. Bragg for appointing Mr. Clingman to the Senate, that gentleman being present, arose and said to Mr. McRae, "Have you not for many years past been an earnest and zealous advocate of my election to the Senate?" "I have," said Mr. McRae. "Then," said Mr. C., "why do you condemn Gov. Bragg for appointing me?" "I do not," said Mr. McRae. "I applaud him for it. I only charge him with inconsistency in his course towards Mr. Venable." Being cheered by the crowd, he went on to compliment Mr. Clingman, and said he ought to have been in the Senate ten years ago. He afterwards said that one of his reasons for desiring Mr. C's election was that he would be a good stick to break down the Whig party.

The Democrats here are delighted with Judge Ellis. Never doubt the result among us.

"Mr. McRae does not suit our taste in anything but profession of the principles of Distribution. Now the mere advocacy of any one principle, however much we may desire opposition to us on all others, does not entitle any man to our support.—There are questions of National and State policy at this time fully as important as distribution. On all these questions, as we conceive it, Mr. McRae is opposed to us and our policy, therefore if we take him we must swallow an immense deal of evil to obtain a little good. We are, with this exception, entirely opposed to Mr. McRae. And we would ask, in this connection, why was it he went to Washington so soon after the death of Judge Potter, and why his prospective candidacy was not announced until after his return?"

"If the question of Distribution is now more popular than it has heretofore been, we say let those reap the rewards who have borne the hardest of the fight. Because Duncan K. McRae has been revelling in Parisian luxuries for four years past, and comes home to take up a question which gave him an office once before, must we, the Whig and American party, bow to him and proclaim him Caesar, and none but those who follow him be true Romans. No, never, never. Let him seek promotion from those whose power his energies have been exerted to establish, from that party which in his youth he chose, and from whose hands he has ever eagerly sought and willingly accepted office. It is better to struggle in the mire than to be picked out piece by piece by a CARRION CROW."

Ashville Spectator, last Spring.

The Weldon correspondent of the South Side Democrat says:—The Roanoke Literary Society, through the attention and efforts of our Representative in Congress, Hon. H. M. Shaw, received last week from the Department of the Interior, one hundred and three volumes of books; containing all the messages, reports, and other documents of the 34th Congress.—The attention of Dr. Shaw entitles him to the gratitude of the membership.

INHUMAN ASSAULT.

On Friday last, at Wake Forest, in this county, Talbot Ligon, his brother Elias Ligon and John C. Jordan, all of this county, assaulted, with a cowhide, in a most inhuman manner, Oscar Von Briesen, a Russian and music teacher, also of this county, under the following circumstances:

It appears that on the previous Tuesday night, at about 10 o'clock, Von Briesen accompanied a German friend named Kreath part of the way to his home in this county. At parting they stopped, for a few moments' conversation, in front of the residence of Talbot Ligon, but on the opposite side of the street. Whilst conversing in their ordinary tone of voice, and without the slightest intimation that anything was wrong, Ligon came upon them unobserved, partly undressed and without shoes, and struck at them a heavy blow with a stick. The blow was received by both. Von Briesen collared the assailant, and Kreath wrung the stick from his grasp. Ligon seeing he had attacked white men, apologized and said he thought they were negroes. The first impulse of the assailed was to return the blow; but seeing the assailant was an elderly man, they forbore. It was resolved, however, that he should answer for the unprovoked attack; and he being unknown to them, he was told he had to accompany them to the Mayor's office to be identified. Ligon asked to return to his house to dress; but the assailed, fearing he might resort to other weapons, or evade them, refused to allow him, but had his clothes brought out, and he put them on.

They then took Ligon to the mayor's office, but there being no officer there, they were induced to let him go, upon the assurance that he was well known and would answer any charges they might prefer against him.

The matter so ended, but was talked of and laughed at next day, as a capital joke; and Von Briesen and Kreath became satisfied and abandoned further proceedings.

On Thursday evening Von Briesen left for Wake Forest to attend to his pupils. On the same night a party of men of whom the Ligans formed a part, sought Von Briesen at his lodging, and threatened to cowhide him. Learning he had gone to Wake Forest, it appears they determined to follow him.

Before Von Briesen left Raleigh, he heard rumors of meditated attack upon him and mentioned the circumstance, with what led to it, to a friend at Wake Forest, by whom he was advised not to return for a few days, and the affair would blow over.—He was induced, however, by a gentleman from Raleigh, to return; and about 11 o'clock on Friday morning he visited the store of Mr. Purifoy to see the person with whom he was to return. He had no sooner entered the store and taken a seat, than Talbot Ligon, Elias Ligon and John C. Jordan, all of whom were personally unknown to him, came upon him from the street, and laid violent hands upon him.—He was dragged forward on to the porch and then on to the street, where he was knocked down on his face and held by Elias Ligon and Jordan, whilst Talbot Ligon stripped his coat up.

In this position on the ground he was firmly held while Talbot Ligon inflicted thirty-nine lashes upon him with a cowhide. The remaining clothes were cut off his back by the lash, and his flesh severely lacerated.

When these assaults were satisfied, they demanded of their victim if he had any weapons about him. He answered in the negative. They then searched him and took from his pocket a small penknife. He was then released, and told that if he ever visited Raleigh again he would get as much more; and they told him further that there were two or three hundred men waiting, ready to ride him on a rail and give him a coat of tar and feathers.

This brutal sight, it appears, was witnessed by four other persons, of whom, John Fort, a nephew we learn of the Ligans, kept the rest off by threats and the cry of a "fair fight." Von Briesen's face was cut with the cowhide and the clothes on the front of his person were completely tattered by his writhings under the lash.

He was ultimately taken to a neighboring house where his wounds were dressed, and where he was supplied with necessary articles of wearing apparel. Shortly after, with his smattering flesh and his mortified spirit, he disappeared from Wake Forest and has not since been heard of. He has been residing here but a short time, and was esteemed a quiet inoffensive man.

The cause of this unparalleled outrage appears to be the indignity of the arrest on Tuesday night. We need hardly add, that the affair is universally regarded here with the utmost abhorrence and indignation. On Monday last Talbot Ligon was brought before Mayor Harrison and bound to Court for the assault of Kreath.

TALBOT LIGON ARRESTED AND BOUND OVER.—On Monday night last Constable Lewis arrested Talbot Ligon at his home in this City, on a warrant issued by W. W. Holder, Justice of the Peace. Mr. Ligon was brought before Justice Holden, the testimony of Mr. Winton, who witnessed the cowhiding, was heard; and Ligon was then held in a bond of one thousand dollars, with security, to appear at the August term of Wake County Court to answer the charge.

Elias Ligon and John C. Jordan have not yet been arrested, but the officers are in pursuit of them.—Kal. Standard.

STRANGE, IS TRUE.—As a man was walking in his garden, he discovered two clothes horses. He took them into his stable where he broke them. He then put the yolk of an egg upon their necks, attached them to a cart by the ends of friendship, and covered them with a sheet of lightning to protect them from the flies. He then leaped upon the cart, set upon the seat of government, took the whip of a top in one hand and the reins of several kings in the other, and drove off, passing through the gate of a Buffalo, over the ground coffee for three miles; was run into by a train of thought and dashed heels over head into a stream of eloquence, where the cart was broken against the rock of a cradle. By industry and fragility he soon gained the shore, where he made a boat of the bark of the prairie wolf, which he fitted with a mast made of the north pole and two auction sales. He then sailed down the river to its mouth, and landed upon a tongue of land, where he was seized by a serious sensation and conveyed to a cell, where he was secured by a chain of lightning fastened by a thunderbolt. The jailer gave him his liberty for a Christmas present, and read him the report of a cannon.

TYRRELL AND HYDE.—Col. B. S. Bagnall is the Democratic candidate for the Senate in this district.

NORTH CAROLINA AND HER DEMOCRACY.

The canvass in North Carolina is regarded with great interest by Democrats; not only on account of the state itself, but because the result will be an index of public opinion in that quarter, when there is such an extraordinary effort made to distract, divide and defeat the democratic party.

The democracy of the Old North State are in fine attitude towards their opponents. They have candidates in nomination of acknowledged talents and of high personal character; their platform is a model for things of this sort, being brief, but comprehensive and strong—cordially sustaining President Buchanan's administration, because it is marked by ability, impartiality, and devotion to the constitutional rights of all sections of the country." So reads the admirable resolutions of the state convention. Such is the position of the democracy, under their capital leader, Judge Ellis.

Opposed to him are the opposition conglomerate, consisting of the remnant of old whigs, the Americans, and the malcontent Democrats, who, though they may disagree on many things, yet unite in vilifying the democratic organization, the national administration, and in supporting Duncan McRae. They are at work hard; and it is said, here at the north, they mean to overthrow the democracy. If we do not mistake, the prominent leaders in this motley band are not now for the first time in the opposition. In 1856 the patriotic democracy of this state had against them the large talent of Venable and the taking eloquence of McRae; Sam, too, was then fresh in his hatred of the pope and the foreigners, and had a sort of national prestige; but the sole result of the opposition was a know nothing member of congress—a solitary and alone South American. Now this speckled set have their mouths watered for the two United States senators which the next legislature will elect!

But, to judge from the spirit of the democracy, evinced thus far in the canvass, their designs are well understood and will be frustrated. Democrats well know that any success, by such an unscrupulous combination, would not fail to be laid hold on with infinite rest by the same opposition elements outside of North Carolina, and to the detriment of that noble organization, the national democratic party. Finally does the North Carolina platform state its cardinal object. Its mission is to stand by the constitutional doctrines of state equality, as it existed and was expounded by every national administration down to 1820; as it is recognized by the last and the present administrations; as it will be sustained in the future administrations of the same stamp. It is false to allege that this doctrine is in any sense a triumph of the south over the north; it is a simple recognition that the sovereign states making up this noble republic, stand as coequals in every section of the land.

And where is there a better illustration of the priceless value of this common and noble guaranty, than is afforded by the present condition of North Carolina? She manages her local affairs in her own way; and of late years, these have felt the invigorating touch of a democratic progress as seen in the effects of the wise policy which successive administrations have fostered. We have before us a glowing description of her prosperity. Her population and her wealth are rapidly increasing; her agriculture and mechanic arts are flourishing as they never flourished before; her noble works of internal improvement are developing her resources, and preparing the way for a great future for the state; and among other things "her system of common schools is superior to that of any other southern state." In a word, never was the Old North State so populous or so prosperous as she is now, after these years of a democratic administration of her affairs. Such are the legitimate fruits of a democratic policy, state and national, careful of right and promotive of peace.

Considerations like these, so well calculated to revive the grand old fraternal and national sentiment—the kindred feeling and interest that made the immortal patriotism of Mecklenburg so grandly, in 1775, join hands with the struggling people of the north—cannot but have their weight with the descendants of such men. How much, forsooth, is North Carolina to gain by throwing herself in fraternity with an opposition that herds with the faction, outside of her limits, that is stirring up local strife between the states that has never had a year of power, in any state, when it did not squander the public treasury and bring on debt and taxation? The North Carolina opposition would certainly fraternize their state with such elements, were it to become successful. We repeat, how much would she gain?

But the democracy of North Carolina have no fear of such a result. The voice of the press is cheering, is even confident, and gives the assurance that things are looking well with them. Their banner is on the outer wall; their ranks are well settled; they have measured, and do not despise their enemy; they keep up that necessary, an organization, and they mean by hard work to go on to the triumph.—They are not only united, but in union for a just cause; for with them will triumph the principles that made our country what it is, and what alone will transmit it, an undivided inheritance, to the latest posterity.—Boston Post.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN NORTHAMPTON.

At a large meeting of the Democrats of Northampton County, held in the Court House at June Term of the County Court, the following resolutions were read:

Dr. W. S. Copeland was called to the Chair, and Wm. T. Josey appointed Secretary. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be the nomination of candidates to represent the county in the next session of the Legislature, and he made some appropriate remarks on the necessity of party organization in connection with the present state of parties in the State.

On motion, a committee of the following gentlemen was appointed to nominate candidates and present other matter for the action of the meeting: W. W. Peebles, Thos. G. Tucker, Jos. M. S. Rogers, John J. Long, Henry Gatling, James H. Deberry, Hartwell Harding and James W. Boon.

The committee retired, and the meeting was addressed in an able and convincing speech from Mr. John Moore, of Hertford. The committee returned and reported the names of the following gentlemen as candidates: Gen. T. J. Person for the Senate, M. W. Smallwood and Jos. R.

Resolved, That we approve of the organization, and are bitterly opposed to all organizers.

Resolved, That we approve of the action of the Charlotte Convention, and will to its nominee our hearty support.

Resolved, That we endorse the action of our representative in Congress, H. M. Shaw.

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to the Raleigh Standard and Northampton Citizen, with a request for publication.

The report was advocated in an able and stirring speech from Mr. W. W. Peebles, the Chairman, and being approved by the meeting, was unanimously adopted.

On motion, the following committee was appointed to wait on the gentlemen named and request their acceptance: M. S. Rogers, H. K. Burgundy and G. Tucker.

Gen. Person appeared, and in a highly happy style accepted his nomination. M. W. Smallwood, Esq., appeared in a plain but earnest and sincere manner, which the meeting warmly accepted his nomination.

Jos. R. Mason, Esq., appeared, and in a feeling and touching manner his nomination, to the regret of his faithful and true friends. He stated whilst he would delight to serve the public and his domestic matters he has no claims on him which demanded attention. He nobly pledged himself support of the action of the meeting to the continued support of Democratic principles.

The meeting then proceeded to elect tickets. Gen. M. W. Ransom and W. W. Peebles, Esq., were then put in nomination, in open meeting, and it was moved that the meeting vote by acclamation for their names.

W. W. Peebles, in a very courteous style, withdrew his name; the vote was taken on the names of Ransom, and carried without a dissenting voice.

Gen. Ransom was waited on by Mr. T. J. Person, and accepted his nomination in eloquent and enthusiastic style.

It was moved that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Raleigh Standard and other papers of the District.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS FOR SALE
WISHING TO STOP FARMING, I offer for sale my two farms, "Woodlawn" and "Cumberland." The farm I live upon is situated on Perquimans river, in Harvey's Neck, and is in the finest state of cultivation, well adapted to the growth of Corn, Wheat and Cotton; has on it a good DWELLING and every necessary out-building. There is about THREE HUNDRED acres cleared, and a deeding of One Hundred and Twenty-five Acres, nearly all ditched and ready to come in. There is between eight and nine hundred acres of LAND attached to the farm; the portion not cleared is well set in pine, oak, gum, hickory, &c. I deem it unnecessary to say any more—those wishing to purchase a good and convenient farm will do well
to come and examine the premises.
The other farm is situated on the North side of Perquimans river, about four miles from Hertford, on the road recently cut through to Elizabeth City. There is about one hundred and fifty acres cleared, and a deeding of about twenty acres, all ditched and ready to come in.
This farm contains between two and three hundred acres, and will yield as much Corn as any land in the county. The buildings are not very good, but comfortable. I will also sell stock and farming utensils on the farms.
A liberal credit will be given.

DOCTOR JOHNSTON.
THE undersigned of this Celebrated Institution, offers the most certain, speedy and entirely effective remedy in the world for Glands, Strictures, Seminal weakness, Pains in the Loins, Constitutional Debility, Impotency, Weakness
of the Back, and all the various diseases of the Genito-urinary System, arising from the Kidneys, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin; and all those serious and melancholy Disorders arising from the destructive habits of Youth, which destroy both body and mind. These secret and solitary practices are more fatal to the victims than the sword of the Sirens to the mariners Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.
YOUNG MEN
especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit,
which annually sweeps to an untimely grave
thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellects, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with all confidence.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness,
organic debility, deformities, &c., should be immediately consult Dr. Johnston, and be restored to perfect health.
He who places himself under the care of Dr.
Johnston, may religiously confide in his honor
as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.
Organic Weakness
Immediately cured and full vigor restored.
This disease is the penalty most frequently paid by those who have become the victims of improper Indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue.
Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of Procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental powers weakened, nervous debility, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, a wasting of the frame,
cough, symptoms of consumption, &c.
Office—No. 7, South Frederick Street, Second floor from Baltimore St., East side, up steps.
Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.
A Cure Warranted, or no Charge Made,
from One to Two Days.
NO MERCURY OR NAUSEOUS DRUGS USED.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blinking of the eyes, and a general derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
A Certain Disease.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-considered sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability, can alone befriend
him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms
of this horrid disease make their appearance,
such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose,
tumors in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones, and scabs, blotches on the face, and extremities progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till
he puts a period to his dreadful sufferings,
by sending him to "that horrible region of woe
and traveler returns." To such therefore Dr.
Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most invaluable secret, and from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America,
he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.
It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victim to this dreadful disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that dreadful poison, mercury, ruin
the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make him a life-long invalid.
Take Particular Notice!
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits which ruin both body and mind, unfitted them for either Business, Study, Society or Marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz:— Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Memory, Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.
The fearful effects upon the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, Confusion of ideas, Depression of Spirits, Foodings
of Evil, Aversion of Society, Self-Distaste, Love of Solitude, Timidity, etc., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now
judge what is the cause of their declining health.
Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.
Dr. Johnston's Invigorating Remedy for Organic Weakness.
By this great and important remedy, weakness of the organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most respectable, who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous Irritability, Tremblings and Weakness,
as exhaustion of the mind, fearful kind, speedily
cured by Dr. Johnston.
Young Men,
Who have injured themselves by a Certain Practice, indulged in when alone—a habit tre-quently learned from evil influences, or from the deceptive effects of what are nightly fed,
even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity it is that young men, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents,
should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating
from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons before contemplating Marriage, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these, the prospects hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes illegal with our own.
ALL SURGICAL OPERATIONS PERFORMED.
To Strangers.
The many thousands cured at this institution
portend surgical operations performed by Dr. J.
witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guarantee that the afflicted will find a skillful and successful Physician.
Dr. JOHNSTON is the only regular Physician advertising to cure private complaints.—
His remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to others. Prepared from a life spent in the great Hospitals of Europe and the first in this country, viz: England, France, the Hospital of Philadelphia, &c., and a more extensive practice than any other Physician in the world.
His many wonderful cures, and a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted, should who wish to be speedily and effectually relieved, should show the numerous trifling impostors, who only ruin their health, and apply to him.
Take Notice.
There are so many ignorant and worthless Quacks advertising themselves as Physicians, ruining the health of the already afflicted, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say, especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his office.
No letters received unless post-paid,
and containing address to use on the reply.
